

Most plants that are accustomed to rain water which is slightly acidic, will thrive by being watered with Acidic Water. Also Acidic water will diminish growth of mold or bacteria, eliminating unpleasant smells and will give your plants healthier environment to grow.